1960 - 2023

I know my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand upon the earth. And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh i will see God ; Job 19:25-26.

Mewura, as i affectionately called him. He became my husband Thirty two years ago in kumasi We moved to Elubo after we had our first child. He showed me so much love that i had never experienced in my life.

Kwame was a very generous and kind. He was so caring to me and my children, He was a peaceful and loving man who rejected quarrels in any form or shape.

Ohh Mewura, why have you left me so suddenly, i always tried to make you happy. My biggest task which i took to heart without hesitation was to always make you happy. You were very well until 2021 when your sickness started. We took you to the hospital and made sure you had the best treatment, little did i know it was a disastrous journey. You were hospitalised for a few weeks and was discharged, this continued and got us all worried. So I decided with our children and the family and took you to Accra for further treatment. Even though you werent happy to go to Accra, We had high hopes that you will get better with time. Indeed you were responding to treatment. i made sure you took your medication. After some months, we came back to Elubo. That very Thursday , you ate well and took your medications and we had our usual chat untill your Son returned from Accra. little did i know that it would be our last moment together . That very day, you told me "maame Jane meni hwee a meka akyere wo, gye se daakye na meda wase" Our thoughts are not his thoughts and our ways are not his ways . "Man proposes and the Lord opposes ". It was a normal Sunday Morning in the hospital May 28th 2023, When suddenly your health became worse . Frantic efforts by the highly professional team of doctors managing you proved futile .

You gave up your soul after a gallant fight of survival. "Owuo Kura Adea Nkwa Ntumi Ngye" Mewura, i know tears are not enough but in the scheme of things, it was the only option. Yes, i cried, i wailed and screamed at the huge vacuum you created in my life and that of our children . We love you and miss you terribly .

Our children and i however, are convinced that you are with the Lord Your maker.

Mewura! My dear Husband Rest Well.

Rest Peacefully in the bossom of the Lord ,

My Darling Husband.

Damirifa Due !

Nyame Nfa wo kra nsie yie!

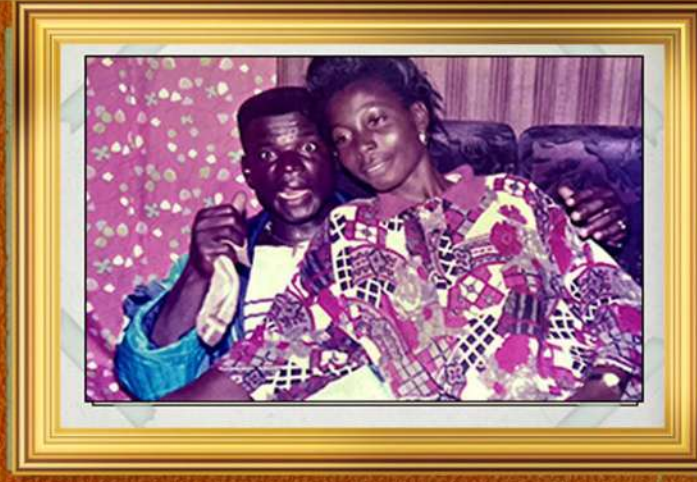

Till we meet Again!

We Love You!

TRIBUTE BY CHILDREN

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED FATHER

Today, as we gather here to bid farewell to our dear father, we find solace in the memories of a man who devoted his life to making us happy. Our father, a dedicated driver, journeyed through different vehicles and unions; from “cent franc cent franc” to “fish” and then to bus, always striving to provide for us and ensure our happiness. With a constant smile on his face, he embraced life's challenges and made sure we felt loved every step of the way. Our father was more than just a driver; he was a source of inspiration and strength. From the moment we were young and vulnerable, he took on the responsibility of ferrying us to and from school. Rain or shine, he was there, his presence providing us with a sense of security and warmth. We remember those early mornings, as he drove us to school, patiently listening to our innocent stories and dreams for the day.

But there was something more profound about our father than his role as a driver. He possessed an unwavering determination, a spirit that never wavered in the face of adversity. It was this spirit that prompted him to share his dreams with us, urging us to pursue education so that we wouldn't have to endure the hardships he did. He saw in us the potential for a brighter future, and he wanted nothing more than to see us succeed and love each other as one big family.

However, fate had a different plan in store for our beloved father. A cruel and unfamiliar sickness gripped him, leading us on a desperate journey to find a cure. We searched tirelessly, seeking out every hospital and expert we could find, desperately hoping for a miracle. But despite our efforts, after two and a half years of battling with all his strength, our father left us, leaving behind a void that can never be filled.

Today, as we mourn the loss of our guiding light, we remember not only the struggles he faced but also the unwavering love he bestowed upon us. Our father's legacy lives on through the memories we hold dear, the lessons he taught us, and the values he instilled in our hearts. His smile will forever be etched in our minds, reminding us to face life's challenges with determination and grace.

Our dear father, you were our hero, our protector, and our role model. You may not have achieved all the dreams you had for yourself, but through us, your dreams will find life and flourish. We promise to honor your wishes, to continue our education, love each other as one big family, and to strive for the best in everything we do.

As we say our final goodbyes, we carry your spirit with us. Though our hearts ache with grief, we find comfort in knowing that you are at peace, free from pain and suffering. Rest assured, dear father, your love will forever guide us, and your memory will forever be cherished.

Until we meet again, may your soul find eternal rest.

With all our love, Your grateful children.
