Biography of the late

MRS. MARY BOAKYE-YIADOM

(NEE AYISI)

"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes: There shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away"

Revelation 21:4

Mrs. Mary Boakye Yiadom (Nee Ayisi) was born on 29th January, 1962 at Kumikrom, a farming community near Asamankese in the Upper Akyem District of the Eastern Region to Mr. Emmanuel Kofi Nyinaku Ayisi (Deceased) and Madam Gladys Yaa Nsemi Anim all of Adukrom – Akuapem. She started her early education at the Quartey Memorial Preparatory School, Accra New Town and later continued at the St. John's Primary School, Accra New Town from 1968 – 1974.

Brilliant as she was, Mary Ayisi (then known) sat for the Common Entrance Examination in 1974, passed and gained admission to Abuakwa State Collage (ABUSCO), Kyebi in the Eastern Region, in the same year. Whilst at St John's Primary School, Mary was a sportswoman par excellence and led the school netball team to beat all the other schools at Accra New Town.

The Late Mrs. Boakye Yiadom did not abandon her sporting activities whilst at ABUSCO.

She sat for her Ordinary Level (GCE O' Level) Examination in her Arts subjects in the year 1979. She bettered some of her grades at the Accra Workers College (now University of Ghana City Campus) and came out successfully. Whilst preparing for her Sixth Form Education,

Mr. Anokye Boakye Yiadom (then a businessman) came her way with a marriage proposal which she agreed to. They got married in the year 1980, a union which was blessed with ten (10) children.

Mary Ayisi joined her late husband in his business enterprise which was later transformed into Real Estate business here in Accra.

Their enterprise continued to boom with a lot of persons benefitting from their handiworks.

The late Mary Boakye Yiadom continued to support her husband in all spheres of his life and the two lived together until death took them away. The husband in August 2018.

Notwithstanding the setback, she continued to play her role as a mother to her children and combined it with her church responsibilities especially with the Women Ministry of the Pentecost International Worship Center (PIWC) at Atomic, where she and her husband worshipped.

Biography of the late

MRS. MARY BOAKYE-YIADOM

(NEE AYISI)

he continued to honor her religious obligations at the church and household responsibilities to her children until she fell ill suddenly in the year 2020.

Her family took the initiative in her healing process with her children in support.

She made strides in her recovery process until for inexplicable reasons, the family heard of her call to her maker in the morning of the 9th May, 2023, leaving behind the (10) children and ten (10) grandchildren.

"You have fought the good fight, you have finished the race and you have kept the faith, Henceforth there is laid up for you the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to you on that day"

We are hopeful that you are currently resting in the arms of your Maker to receive your crown of glory when all mankind will be judged before the throne of the Creator of the universe.

Rest well in the bosom of your maker. God grant you eternal peace and keep your gentle soul, till we meet again in paradise.

Da yie! Da yie! Da yie!

Me nim se m3 dwuma 3ri ny3 kwa

Mummy this was one of your favourite songs.

We all witnessed your commitment and love for our

Lord Jesus Christ

as well as your dedication to the church.

This was an example to all of us.

Out of the 61 years of your life, 25 years were fully devoted and sacrificed to raise and nurture us in the fear of God and to acknowledge Him as our Lord, fortress and refuge; in Him we will always trust. Raising a child is commendable yet you had to raise ten and you did such with strength and grace.

Our mother, our friend, our confidant, our most prayerful one, we miss you dearly.

On that fateful day when we heard of your demise it felt like our whole world had been shattered with nowhere else to go. Mummy you told us you were going to recover and come back to us very healthy yet it was your lifeless body that we saw. Death has been unfair. We really hoped for your full recovery because when daddy left you were all we had and now you are no more, like you always said NYAME TEASE.

We know you are resting in the bosom of the Lord until we meet again mummy, we love you and we will continually hold on to the faith, the legacy you and daddy left with us.

NYAME TEASE.

TRIBUTE BY SIBLINGS TO THE LATE

MRS. MARY BOAKYE-YIADOM

(NEE AYISI)

"DEATH TAKES AWAY THE BODY. GOD TAKES THE SOUL.
OUR MINDS HOLD THE MEMORIES.
OUR HEARTS KEEP THE LOVE.
OUR FAITH LET US KNOW WE WILL MEET AGAIN"
(KELLYS TREEHOUSE)

And I heard a voice from Heaven say, "Write this down:
Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on.
Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed,
for they will rest from their hard work;
for their good deeds follow them"
Revelation 14:13 (NLT VERSION).

Hmmm, another sibling is gone. The second out of nine children of the late Kofi Henaku Ayisi and Obaapanin Gladys Yaa Nsemi. All that we are saying is rest in perfect peace Akosua Ayisibea Mary.

Growing up together, you played the role of a big sister and a mother. You were the typical child who would take care of her Siblings both at home and school, especially when most of us found ourselves with you on the campus of Accra New Town Experimental School near the St. Paul's Catholic Church, Kpehe.

Your sporting prowess brought joy to us when we witnessed some of the events and games you participated in. You will collect monies given to us and other children in the house we resided, on the Suhum Street, Accra New Town, prepare delicious meals for us during our vacation periods in the absence of our parents who had gone to work. You made sure we did not waste the little money we had on us. We learnt to be very prudent with the little resources at our disposal

Your love for your younger siblings and other kids was so amazing that it attracted your peers and elders in the community in which we lived. Occasionally, you would take one or two of us to visit your female friends whenever you are on vacation whilst at Abuakwa State College, Kibi.

Though you left early to your marital home, you kept in touch with us as expected. The bonding grew stronger even after the demise of your husband. Your response was so encouraging and pleasant anytime we visit you. This will continue to be in our memories for a very long time.

It is unfortunate we have suddenly lost a sister whom we prayed and hoped for that she would recover and live long to attend to her children, grandchildren and family members.

The news of your passing on came as a shock and surprise as none of us had expected that you would depart this world at this moment to meet your maker.

May the will of God continue to prevail in our lives. He is sovereign

Have a peaceful rest, Akosua Ayisibea, till we meet again.

Da yie! Da yie! Da yie!

TRIBUTE BY PENTECOST INTERNATIONAL WORSHIP CENTRE-ATOMIC TO THE LATE DEACONESS MARY BOAKYE-YIADOM (MRS)

"And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died."

(1 Thessalonians 4:13-14)

Our records indicate that Deaconess (Mrs) Mary Boakye - Yiadom Deaconess accepted Christ and was baptized in water by immersion in 1979 by Pastor Parker then of the Accra New Town District of The Church of Pentecost. She worshiped in the district for the greater part of her adult life and where she also got married to her late husband, Nana Anokye Boakye-Yiadom in December 1980.

When the three English Assemblies in Accra (including Kokomlemle) were amalgamated into the Accra International Worship Centre in 1993 (subsequently to become Pentecost International Worship Centre - Accra), Mrs Mary Boakye-Yiadom became a foundation member. In October 2008, when PIWC-Accra was split into two, she was one of the few members that opted to form the nucleus of PIWC-Atomic.

At the time, various structures were being put in place in the new centre and Deaconess Boakye-Yiadom was active in joining forces with other ladies in ensuring that the Women's Ministry was made attractive to all women, especially the young ladies. In July 2010, Mrs. Mary Boakye-Yiadom was ordained a Deaconess of the church by Apostle Ephraim Barabu, then Area Head for Madina. In spite of the fact that she had a large growing family, Deaconess Mary Boakye-Yiadom did not allow her family life to affect her activism in church activities.

She did her best to be regular and punctual for Sunday Celebration Services.

On Lord's Supper Sundays in particular, she came in early and will quickly assist her colleagues to ensure that the preparation of the elements was promptly done before taking her seat.

Deaconess Mary Boakye-Yiadom was a regular participant in the church's mid-week Prayer Service ('KRATOS') as well as other week-long services among others.

She was also very active in the activities of the Women's Ministry, the church's home cell system and Redemption Hour Prayer Meetings.

TRIBUTE BY IN-LAWS TO THE LATE

MRS. MARY BOAKYE-YIADOM
(NEE AYISI)

A MOTHER INLAW LIKE YOU

We just want to let you know You meant the world to us

Only a heart as dear as yours will give so unselfishly .

The many things you've done , all the times that you were there , helped us to know deep down inside how much you really cared.

Even though we might not say we appreciate all you do , richly blessed is how we feel .

A mother inlaw just like you
